

MIAMI UNION ADVENTIST ACADEMY

High School English Teacher

Miami Union Adventist Academy is looking for a dynamic, creative, energetic, Spirit-filled educator to join our team in the beautiful city of North Miami, Florida. The winning candidate will be responsible for teaching all English classes for the high school, be a class sponsor, offer tutoring to students as needed, participate in extracurricular activities, and be an active participant in our staff worships, outings, and meetings.

You will also have other responsibilities such as supervision and recruitment activities. The school is supported by many surrounding churches, a committed school board, and a passionate conference office eager to see a change in the Miami area. We are faithfully committed to Adventist Education shown through excellence and commitment to the vision of the school's administration. You will work with a group of dedicated educators looking to welcome a new member to the team.

Miami Union Adventist Academy has a history of strong academic performance. The winning candidate will need to be able to not only teach but also enhance our English program as we join our efforts with other colleges and universities. If you believe that your work ethic and passion for young people can meet and exceed these expectations, you are encouraged to apply.

If you want to be part of a team that desires to give students the best Christian educational experience possible in a Christ-filled environment, then Miami Union Adventist Academy may be the place for you.

Areas of strength:

- An active SDA certification or in the process of acquiring certification
- Strong classroom management skills
- Customer service expert
- Up-to-date on best educational practices
- Easily adapts to current classroom technologies
- Involve in afterschool activities
- Engaging communicator
- An "all-in" team player

If you are interested in being part of our team, submit your resume, cover letter, copy of certification, and three reference letters addressing your work ethic, classroom management skills, customer service experience, and your commitment to Adventist Education.

Experience: An undergraduate (or higher) education degree is required. All candidates must be currently available to work in the United States and be fully certified. Must be a dedicated Seventh-day Adventist who is committed to the development of young people in a meaningful way.
